property description

Arranged over the two top floors of a Victorian relic, and retaining original features like traditional windows, this charming property is full of character and must be seen to be fully appreciated. On the first floor are the bathroom and separate WC, spacious eat-in kitchen with plenty of room for a table, and a sunny 16x12 living room with fronted bay. The second floor houses two well-proportioned bedrooms, sweeping south-facing views of London, and a wealth of storage in the eaves. Offered unfurnished, presented in neutral condition throughout, and ideally located from Honor Oak Park Station (3 mins walking). Council Tax Band C. Available end of September 2020. Call now to grab a real gem of a flat. -
