

property description

Teeming with character and charm is this very impressive 3 double bedroom semi-detached Victorian family home. The gated front driveway just adds to the striking façade, with large square sash bay windows and a red brick arched front doorway which is illuminated by original Victorian stain glass. The main entrance hall gives a very good impression of what is to come, high ceilings, ornate cornicing and original Victorian tiled flooring leads to staircase and primary ground floor rooms. There is a large double reception room that spans from front to back which can be divided by huge double doors. Both rooms have their own original fireplaces and wooden flooring. The front part of the ...
