

Dunstans Road , SE22 (2 bedroom Flat)

£595,000

property description

Beautifully presented throughout is this lovely two double bedroom ground floor garden maisonette with SHARE OF FREEHOLD in this popular residential road in the heart of East Dulwich, which offers permit free street parking. The flat occupies the whole of the ground floor of this handsome Victorian property, built circa 1890 and benefits from double glazing throughout, well-proportioned living accommodation, low maintenance front and rear gardens and a useful cellar for storage. The house has great kerb appeal with typical Victorian features such as bay windows with detailed brickwork above and a yellow stock brick facade. The house is set back from the street by a neatly manicured, low maintenance, walled front garden, which is paved with surrounding borders housing some finely trimmed shrubs. The entrance to the property is through an arched doorway with double glazed doors to a porch that lead to the entrance of the flat. The hallway has hard-wearing engineered oak flooring that runs all the way down to the reception at the back of the property, within the hallway is ...
