property description

Set on the 1st floor of this stunning double fronted Victorian semi-detached house is this well-proportioned 2 bedroom flat with access to a well maintained private garden. The garden is currently shared communally for the benefit of all owners. The property is well located LESS THAN HALF A MILE walk to Forest Hill station where there are regular services to London Bridge and Overground connections. Upon approach to the house it is hard to ignore the imposing facade of ornate stone working around the door and windows, set on yellow old stock brickwork. Through an arched porch is a large front door leading to the communal hallway. Entrance to the flat is on the first floor, at the fro...
