property description

Guide price 625k - £650k. Occupying the whole garden level of this stunning end of terrace period house is this well-proportioned two-bedroom maisonette with its own front door that benefits from a beautifully landscaped WEST facing private rear garden with a home office/studio, also accessible from a communal side return shed, that offers great additional storage for bikes, tools and the like. The whole property has been painstakingly renovated by the current owner during the years of their ownership. Total floor space is a very generous 953 Sqft (88.57 Ssm)! The statuesque building has recently been externally redecorated which adds to the impressive kerb appeal. From the grand raise...
