£399,950

property description

Beautifully presented one-bedroom flat, set on the raised ground floor of this spectacular semi-detached red brick Victorian house. This impressive property has kerb appeal in abundance and it also benefits from its own private landscaped rear garden, off street parking and is being sold with a SHARE OF FREEHOLD. Raised ground floor steps lead up to the front entrance of the building where there is a well-maintained communal entrance hall. At the front of the property is the main reception room which is dominated by a large floor to ceiling sash windows that fills the room with natural light. As the flat is set on the raised ground floor the reception room is located high above the s...
