property description

A beautifully refurbished two-bedroom period maisonette with a private landscaped rear garden, combining sophisticated modern living with an abundance of retained period character and charm. Situated on the sought-after Colfe Road, this impressive ground-floor maisonette has been thoughtfully refurbished throughout to a high standard, creating a stylish and welcoming home while retaining many of the original features that give the property its character. Approached via a well-maintained front garden, the property has its own private entrance leading into a generous hallway with stripped and varnished wooden flooring and useful under-stair storage. There is also a large Asgard bike stor...
