£750,000 (OIEO)

property description

Offering plenty of potential is this spacious 3 double bedroom, 1930's semi-detached family home close to Honor Oak Park station. The house benefits from off street parking, a SOUTH facing private rear garden and is set back from the street by a front garden. The house is set back from the street by a front garden and driveway where there is space for one car, steps lead up to the front entrance where there is an original 1930's front door and porch. The house offers nice kerb appeal with exposed bricks on the ground floor and a rendered first floor, there is a nice bay window which has been double glazed along with all the other windows in the house. Upon entry there is a wide hallway with wood effect flooring that runs throughout the ground floor rooms. A carpeted staircase leads upstairs that offers storage underneath. There is also access to the side return where there is a workshop shed that has been built, great for additional storage. At the front of the house is a generous reception room that has high ceilings a feature fireplace and a large bay window that fills t...
