

Agnew Road, SE23 (4 bedroom House)

£825,000 (OIEO)

property description

Proudly presenting this very spacious, handsome, red brick, Victorian family home, in need of modernisation. Boasting 4 bedrooms, double glazing throughout and a well maintained private rear garden. This house certainly has plenty of curb appeal, set back from the street by a fenced patio front garden, large bay windows with period detailing and a red brick façade. Through the large vintage front door is a generous hallway leading to the primary ground floor rooms. The double reception room is a vast space with high ceilings and cornicing, the large bay windows flood the room with natural light and on the other side of the room there are double patio doors that lead to the garden via the side return. Towards the rear of the house is a dining room which has carpeted flooring and a side facing bay window that give this room plenty of natural light. There is also a chimney breast with a fireplace and a storage cupboard in the alcove. Beyond this at the far end of the house is the kitchen which has plenty of wall and base mounted units with the sink sitting under the win...
